Dear John

Reputation is everything to any business, whether it be the work you do or the people you recommend, which brings me to my point.

You have done high quality work for our company and dealt with our customers in a professional manner for the past 3 1/2 years, I have no doubt my step father will carry on with this business relationship.

I also introduced you to my dad's company about 2 years ago, they are a company which invests in office blocks and other commercial properties and are estimated to be worth nearly 100 million. They buy up property, refurb and then let out or sell on.

Since I have introduced you to them you have done numerous office refurbishments for them to a very high standard organizing the projects from start to finish. I have heard nothing but praise from the company off which are very hard to please, so it speaks for it self you do a great job.

So I would just like to say a big thank you for the way that you have supported & helped my business and wish you all the best for the future.

Kind Regards
